

Florida Breast Cancer Foundation presents 2010 Education and Advocacy Breast Cancer Conference

The Florida Breast Cancer Foundation (FBCF) recently hosted its annual "Education and Advocacy Conference" at the Crowne Plaza Hollywood Beach. The one-day conference was a huge success with over 120 FBCF supporters, advocates, and breast cancer survivors in attendance to hear about the latest cutting edge research from scientific grant recipients funded by monies from the Florida specialty End Breast Cancer license plate.

The conference offered a full day of educational sessions featuring breast cancer experts, researchers, and advocates, as well as numerous informational community resources.

The 2010 "Education and Advocacy Conference" featured presentations from: Ann Fonfa, president, Annie Applesseed; Robert P. DerHagopian, MD, surgical oncologist; Paula Holland De Long, founder, What's Next For My Life; Susan Luck, R.N., founder, Earthrose Institute; Shahla Masood, MD, Medical Director, Shands Jacksonville Breast Health Center; Alvaro N.A. Monteiro, Ph.D.; Antoinette Muirhead, oncology massage therapist; and Jonathan R. Weiser, M.D., diplomat, American Board of Plastic Surgery.

"We are all so proud of the level of professionalism, great attendance, and interest in this year's conference," says FBCF President and CEO James Konschnik. "This conference is a culmination of our mission as well as educating our community on how our dollars are invested in our Florida based breast cancer research."

Salvador Dali 's Down the Rabbit Hole on exhibit at Ansin Family Art Gallery, Miramar Cultural Center

Down the Rabbit Hole, Salvador Dali's rare suite of lithographs, is the newest art exhibition open at the Ansin Family Art Gallery inside the Miramar Cultural Center through September.

Dali's Down the Rabbit Hole is the Surrealist master's response to Lewis Carroll's literary classic Alice in Wonderland. It offers an excellent introduction to the artist, the surrealist movement and one of the most beloved and imaginative stories in Western culture.

The exhibition is organized by the Museum of Art / Fort Lauderdale, Nova Southeastern University.

The Ansin Family Art Gallery is open Monday, Wednesday and Friday 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Tuesday and Thursday 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. Donations are suggested.

The Miramar Cultural Center/ArtsPark is located at 2400 Civic Center Place on Red Road North of Miramar Parkway. The Box Office is open Tuesday through Friday 10:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and two hours prior to show-time.
